

Talent Kids

Online English tutors wanted! £20/hour, work at home

We teach 6-12 years old in China

We are Talent Kids, a new educational company founded by Cambridge students. We currently have 25 tutors from Cambridge and Oxford delivering online English courses to primary school students (age 6-12) in China. Our tutors follow our standard curriculum, and deliver video chat with Chinese kids through an interactive virtual blackboard to improve their listening and speaking skills.

Our requirements on tutors

We look for reliable and cooperative students or graduates from Cambridge or Oxford. He/she should speak English at native or fluent level, can normally commit to at least 2 hours work per week (full flexibility on the work time), and have a passion in language education. Experiences in teaching especially in teaching Chinese kids will be beneficial but not necessary. Speaking Mandarin is not required. New tutors will go through a paid training period after entering the firm.
